

Imagining Indigenous Futurities

FRIDAY:
9:45AM - 4:30PM

SATURDAY:
9:30AM - 5:45PM

SUNDAY:
9:30AM - 3:00PM

AMERICAN INDIAN AND INDIGENOUS COLLECTIVE'S 9TH ANNUAL SYMPOSIUM

IMAGINING INDIGENOUS FUTURITIES is focused on how our communities are envisioning and enacting lush futures in the now for all our human and more-than-human relations. With the 2022 Symposium, the AIIC aims to advance conversations about global Indigenous people's lifeways, ecologies, and knowledges; Indigenous Traditional Ecological Knowledges (ITEK); practices and theories for enacting just, decolonial, and sustainable futures; Native feminist, Indigiqueer, and Two Spirit knowledge creation, storytelling, and organizing; Landback movements; and, Native storytelling as a form of resistance, survivance, and theorizing.

THE AIIC SYMPOSIUM HAS THE HONOR OF FEATURING THE FOLLOWING KEYNOTE SPEAKERS WHOSE RESEARCH ADDRESSES ISSUES RELATED TO INDIGENOUS FUTURITIES, ITEK, AND INDIGENOUS ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE:

DOLLY KIKON

(LOTHA NAGA)

DINA GILIO-WHITAKER

(COLVILLE CONFEDERATED TRIBES DESCENDANT)

GRACE L. DILLON

(ANISHINAABE)

REGISTER: TINYURL.COM/UCSB-AAIC

WEBSITE: TINYURL.COM/2022-AIIC-IIF

CONTACT: UCSBAIIC@GMAIL.COM

OUR CO-SPONSORS American Cultures in a Global Context Center (ACGCC); Blum Center; Bren School of Environmental Science and Management; Center for Black Studies Research; The Global Latinidades Project; Hemispheric South/s Research Initiative; Hull Professor and Chair of Women's Studies Program; Interdisciplinary Humanities Center (IHC); the IHC's American Indian and Indigenous Collective Research Focus Group (the IHC AIIC RFG); Literature and Environment Research Initiative; Literature and the Mind Research Initiative; UCSB College of Letters & Science; UCSB Department of Asian American Studies; UCSB Department of English; UCSB Department of Environmental Studies; UCSB Department of Feminist Studies; UCSB Department of History of Art and Architecture; UCSB Graduate Division; UCSB Graduate Student Association; UCSB Office of Equal Opportunity & Discrimination Prevention; UCSB Office of the Vice Chancellor for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion.

APRIL • 22-24 • 2022

