

INTERDISCIPLINARY
Humanities
CENTER

RFG Symposium:
Intergenerational Dynamics: Undergraduate Research Showcase

WEDNESDAY, MAY 22

3:30–5:30 PM

Phelps 6320 and Zoom | Learn more: bit.ly/GCE-RFG

Intergenerational Dynamics is the Global Childhood Ecologies Research Focus Group's second annual undergraduate research showcase. It features multidisciplinary presentations of undergraduate research related to childhood, including senior honors thesis research in Comparative Literature by senior major Daian Martinez and research on Education by Lakshmi Garcia in the College of Creative Studies.

Sponsored by the IHC's Global Childhood Ecologies Research Focus Group

Image: Chen, Y. (2012) Apple Sweet Honey

“Little Adults: The Adult Presence in Chinese and Anglophone Children’s Picturebooks”

Daian Michely Martinez '24 (Comparative Literature)

“The rhetoric of MLR’s (Mathematical Language Routines) for linguistically diverse California elementary schools”

Lakshmi Garcia '25 (College of Creative Studies Writing and Literature)

Chair: Sara Pankenier Weld (Germanic and Slavic Studies)

