Small Spaces: Recasting the Architecture of Empire

Bloomsbury Publishing, 2023

Tuesday, May 21 | 4:00 pm

McCune Conference Room, 6020 HSSB

Join us for a dialogue between Swati Chattopadhyay (History of Art and Architecture) and Cristina Venegas (Film and Media Studies) about Chattopadhyay's new book, Small Spaces: Recasting the Architecture of Empire.

Chattopadhyay recasts the history of the British empire by focusing on the small spaces that made the empire possible and using them to narrate the untold stories of the marginalized people—the servants, women, children, subalterns, and racialized minorities—who held up the infrastructure of empire.

Swati Chattopadhyay is Professor of History of Art and Architecture at UC Santa Barbara. She specializes in modern architecture and urbanism and the cultural landscape of the British empire.

Refreshments will be served.
