

FREE PUBLIC EVENT

SALT OF THE EARTH: A CONVERSATION BETWEEN A PALESTINIAN AND AN ISRAELI PEACE ACTIVIST

Tue, Oct 8 | 4:30–6:30 PM | McCune Conference Room, 6020 HSSB

Learn more: ihc.ucsb.edu

Peace activists Rotem and Osama will share their personal stories of transformation, lessons of joint peaceful resistance, and the vastly different realities they face in the same land. They will discuss their vision of collective liberation through non-violent resistance and a path toward collective safety and liberation.

Osama Iliwat was born in Jerusalem. He has been in the peace world for more than 15 years and is the co-founder of Visit Palestine.

Rotem Levin was born and raised in Ein Vered. He is a committed peace activist and doctor by profession.

Sponsored by the Interdisciplinary Humanities Center

INTERDISCIPLINARY
Humanities
CENTER

UC SANTA BARBARA