JUAN COBO BETANCOURT

The Coming of the Kingdom: The Muisca, Catholic Reform, and Spanish Colonialism in the New Kingdom of Granada

(Cambridge University Press: 2024)

Tuesday, April 22 | 4:00pm

McCune Conference Room, 6020 HSSB

Join us for a dialogue between Juan Cobo Betancourt (History) and Antonio Cortijo (Spanish and Portuguese) about Cobo's new book. The Coming of the Kingdom explores the experiences of the Indigenous Muisca peoples of the New Kingdom of Granada (Colombia) during the introduction and development of Christianity with attention to colonialism, religious reform, law, language, and historical writing. Refreshments will be served.

Juan Cobo Betancourt is Assistant Professor of History at the University of California, Santa Barbara. He is also a co-founder of Neogranadina, a Colombian non-profit foundation devoted to safeguarding the holdings of endangered archives and libraries through digitization.

Cosponsored by the IHC's Harry Girvetz Memorial Endowment
