

NOV
12
TUE

1:00–2:30 PM
6206C Phelps and Zoom
bit.ly/GCM-IHC

MARTINA MATTEI

This talk will explore key concepts from The Routledge Companion to Children's Literature and Culture. Martina Mattei will address how children's literature is translated and adapted across different cultures and media, examining the balance between staying true to original texts and making them accessible for young readers.

Martina Mattei is a Ph.D. student in Comparative Literature at UC Santa Barbara. She completed her M.A. degree in literature at the University of Cagliari, Italy.

Sponsored by the IHC's Global Childhood Media Research Focus Group

IHC Events